

ZON HOLIDAYS

DETAILED PROJECT REPORT(SRS)

CONTENTS

1 .INTRODUCTION

2 .DETAILED DESCRIPTION

2.1 Admin

2.2 Customer

3.CONCLUSION

1.INTRODUCTION

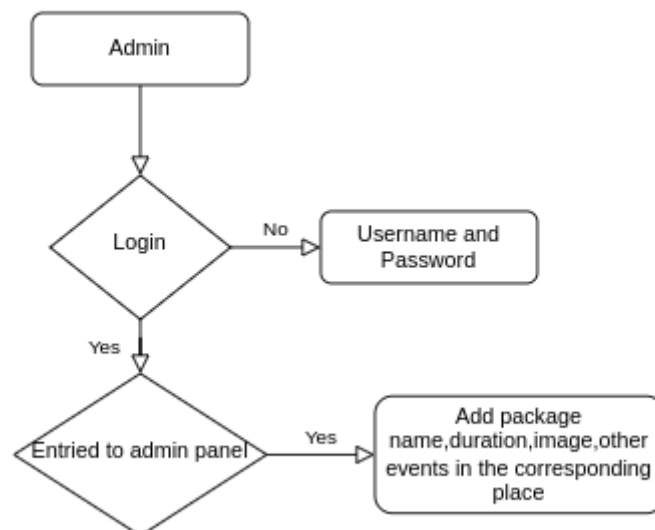

Zon Holidays is a travel and tourism supporting company. The purpose of the website is to take orders from customer. From the package section , customer can select a package according to their wish. And also customer can see about other events in the corresponding place. By this website a customer can select a package and confirm their orders via online payment method. The online payment method can be used by Payment Gateway method. Zon Holidays provide the ticket booking and visa services so customer can select their own way of travelling by choosing via ticket booking and all services related visa included the visa section

2.DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Zon Holidays website contain five pages that home , about , packages , gallery and contact page.The home page contains introduction about the company , list of packages , contact form and other elements that can attract to users. The about page contains an overview about company , history,vision and mission of company. And also the services provided by Zon Holidays. The package page contains the list of packages.Customer can view the details of the package and can search about packages with date and place. If the customer satisfied with the package customer can book via online payment. Admin can add pictures of all tours and events in the gallery section to attract the customers.And customers can enquire about a subject by filling the form in contact page.

2.1 ADMIN

The admin can add package details about each packages using admin panel

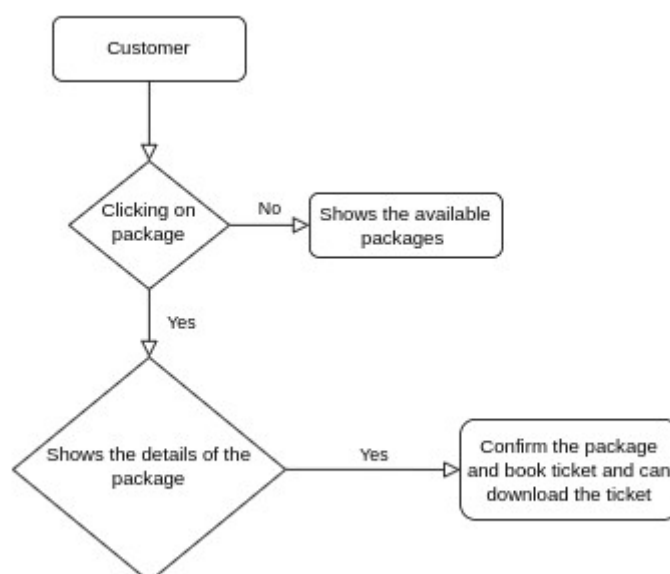

Admin can login using username and password to admin panel.Admin can add new packages , delete and edit on existing packages.The package details containg package name , duration of the package , images of the places , other events in that place , etc.Admin can view the reviews added by users.And also admin can add images in gallery section.The form filled by users in contact form admin got the details of the users and their enquires.

2.2 CUSTOMER

Customer can see the packages in website.By clicking on a package it will direct to another page.That page contain videos,images of the places , and customer can check availablity of another events in the place by selecting dates.If the customer confirmed the package they can book tickets via online payment.After the confirmation of the booking can download the ticket through the website.

Customers can add reviews and view the reviews. And customer can enquire about a subject via a form in the contact page

3.CONCLUSION

Conclusion on overall , The project has provided a website for book an tour package.It provided complete and acurate method for customer to confirm a tour package according to customer's wish.